

Catholic Professionals of Illinois

catholicprofofil@gmail.com • www.catholicprofessionalsil.org

“Why Do You Want to do That? A Journey From Success to Significance” with Peter Kinsella
Saturday, September 29th
at 7:00 PM
St. Isaac Jogues Catholic Church, 306 W. 4th Street, Hinsdale, IL

Catholic Professionals of Illinois is a group of men and women who proactively seek to influence the culture through their various and respective professions, while working in the world, witnessing the authentic spirit and love of Christ, and serving as mentors to the next generation of leaders.

CPI is honored to host Mr. Peter Kinsella, who will share his personal testimony on how he was inspired to move from a successful banking career to the non-profit world, and how following God's call is providing amazing rewards. Pete is a Senior Development Officer for Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet. He is responsible for managing major donors, corporate sponsors, Parish relationships and identifying new funding sources in DuPage County.

Pete recently left the banking industry after a 35-year banking career, spending the last 26 years at BMO Harris Bank as a Senior Relationship Manager in Business Banking. Over his career, he has been on numerous non-profit boards including Big Brothers Big Sisters, United Way, Family Shelter Service, St. Irene Catholic School, St. Francis High School, and had spent seven years on Catholic Charities' Board of Directors before joining the team. He taught Religious Education at St. Irene Catholic Church and Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In addition, he coached baseball and basketball for the Warrenville Athletic Association and coached basketball for St. Irene Grade School. He is a Third Degree Knight in the Knights of Columbus, and member of the Fit Shepherds Men's Group at Our Lady of Mercy, where he is a parishioner. Pete is a graduate of St. Michael's Parish School and St. Francis High School in Wheaton, received his BA in Accounting from North Central College in Naperville, and received his MBA from Keller Graduate School of Management.

As a DuPage County resident, Pete was extremely excited about the opportunity to join the team at Catholic Charities: "I knew that at some point in my career I would be working for a not for profit agency that serves people in need. I am very excited to on the team at Catholic Charities whose mission is to help the poor and vulnerable. Pete can be reached at 630-519-6531 or pkinsella@cc-doj.org.

Catholic Charities is a faith-based organization providing service to people in need and calling others of good will to do the same. To learn more about Catholic Charities, please visit catholiccharitiesjoliet.org

“Let Christians follow the example of Christ who worked as a craftsman; let them be proud of the opportunity to carry out their earthly activity in such a way as to integrate human, domestic, professional, scientific and technical enterprises with religious values, under whose supreme direction all things are ordered to the glory of God.” - Second Vatican Council